1. What is the official position of your government regarding the ratification of the UN Migrant Workers' Convention?
2. What is your institution's position regarding the Migrant Workers Convention?
3. Have you ever expressed opinions/recommendations or carried out activities to raise awareness about the Migrant Workers Convention or to promote its ratification?
4. How would you assess the position of political parties, civil society actors and other stakeholders with respect to the ratification of the Migrant Workers Convention by your country?
5. Are you aware of any parliamentary interventions in favour of the Migrant Workers Convention? If so, can you list them?
6. Are you aware of any national campaigns in favour of ratification? If so, can you list them and how would you assess their effectiveness? Was your institution in any way involved in this?
7. Is your institution working together with national human rights institutions in other EU Member States and has the ratification of the Migrant Workers Convention ever been part of this collaboration? If not, do you think such collaboration would be useful (and why)?
8. Is your institution involved in any of the periodic reporting which your government is obliged to under the UN human rights conventions it has ratified? If so, do you know if migrants' rights issues have been addressed in these reports?
